PEAUTIFUL SERVICE.

The children's service at the Second Presbyterian Church, last Sunday afternoon was one of the prettiest. Almost every number on the programme was rendered by the boys and girls of the ch urch, and they all excelled them selves. The following programme was render d:

Hymn, "Oaward Obristian Soldiers;" prayer, select'on by the Sanday school choir: recitation, Evelyn Howard; quartette, Elenor Melchoir, May Mander, Elizabeth Howell, and Catharine Richards; hymn; recitation, "The Voice of Spring," Miss Blanche Stausbury; duet, Miss Julia Bigelow, and Stephen Field; talk by the pastor on the resurrection; recitation, "Giving our Pennies," Edzibeth Faulkner; selection by Sunday school choir; trio, Misses M. and C. Emerson, and Virginia Paff.

The paster gave each of the four hundred children present a package of flower seed, to impress the idea of the resurrection. Each child is to plant them and give as many as they can to sick people.

During the service a little baby was baptized. Another children's service will be held April 24th.
